

PRIVACY POLICY

At Osborne Enterprises Inc., we take the privacy and security of our client's information very seriously. This privacy policy outlines how we will collect, store, use and disclose your personal and private information.

Collection of Information:

We may collect personally identifiable information such as your name, business name, contact information, and other related details to provide services to you. We may collect this information through our website, email, telephone calls, and other forms of communication.

Use of Information:

We use your personal information solely for the purpose of providing our services to you. We may also use this information to communicate with you regarding our services, to improve our services, and to comply with legal and regulatory requirements. We will not share your personal information with any third party, except as necessary to provide our services or as required by law.

Wix may collect, store and process certain Personal Information of Users-of-Users ("Users-of-Users Information"), solely on our Users' behalf and at their direction. For example, each of our Users can import their email contacts from third-party services like Gmail, or otherwise collect and manage contacts via their User Website. Such contacts are then stored with Wix, on the User's behalf.

For such purposes, Wix serves and shall be considered as a "Processor" and not as the "Controller" (as both such capitalized terms are defined in the European Union General Data Protection Regulation ("GDPR")) of such Users-of-Users Information.

Protection of Information:

We take reasonable measures to protect your personal information from unauthorized access, disclosure, or misuse. Our employees are trained in the proper handling and safeguarding of information, and we use industry-standard encryption and security protocols when transmitting or storing your data.

Access and Correction of Information:

You have the right to access, modify, and correct your personal information at any time. If you wish to exercise this right, please contact us and we will provide the necessary assistance.

Changes to this Privacy Policy:

From time to time, we may modify this privacy policy to reflect changes in our business practices or applicable laws and regulations. Any changes made to this policy will be posted on our website, and your continued use of our services following the posting of changes will constitute your acceptance of those changes.
